GREAT LEADER LAL BAHADUR SHASTRI

Shastri Ji was born to Shri. Sharad Prasad Srivastava and Smt. Ramdulari Devi in Mughalsarai on 2 October 1904. He studied in East Central Railway Inter college and Harish Chandra High School, which he left to join the non-cooperation movement. He worked for the betterment of the Harijans at Muzaffarpur. Shastri's thoughts were influenced by reading about Swami Vivekananda, Mahatma Gandhi and Annie Besant. Deeply impressed and influenced by Gandhi, he joined the Indian Independence movement in the 1920s. He served as the president of Servants of the People Society (Lok Sevak Mandal), founded by Lala Lajpat Rai and held prominent positions in the Indian National Congress. Following independence in 1947, he joined the Indian government and became one of Prime Minister Nehru's key cabinet colleagues, first as Railways Minister (1951-56), and then in numerous other prominent positions, including the Home Minister.

As prime minister, Shastri Ji promoted the White Revolution - a national campaign to increase the production and supply of milk - by supporting the Amul milk co-operative of Anand, Gujarat and creating the National Dairy Development Board. Underlining the need to boost India's food production, Shastri Ji also promoted the Green Revolution in India in 1965. This led to an increase in food grain production, especially in the states of Punjab, Haryana and Uttar Pradesh.

Former Prime Minister Shri. Lal Bahadur Shastri was one of those great Indians who has left an indelible impression on our collective life. Shri. Shastri's contribution to our public life were unique in that they were made in the closest proximity to the life of the common man in India. Shri. Shastri was looked upon by Indians as one of their own, one who shared their ideals, hopes and aspirations. His achievements were looked upon not as the isolated achievements of an individual but of our society collectively. Under Shastri's leadership India faced and repulsed the Pakistani invasion of 1965. It is not only a matter of pride for the Indian Army but also for every citizen of the country. His slogan Jai Jawan! Jai Kisan ("Hail to the soldier; Hail to the farmer") reverberates even today through the length and breadth of the country. Underlying this is the inner-most sentiments 'Jai Hind'. The war of 1965 was fought and won for our self-respect and our national prestige. For using our Defence Forces with such admirable skill, the nation remains beholden to Shri. Lal Bahadur Shastri. He will be remembered for all times to come for his large heartedness and public service. The war formally ended with the Tashkent Declaration on 10 January 1966, Shastri Ji died the next day.
